Present: Annette Grillo, Allan Johnston, Susan McAllister, Monica St Baker, Lyndelle Wallace, John Delves, Brian Corner, Grant Delves, Jan Thompson, Norm Murphy, Mel Corner, Julie Napoli, Wendy Collis.

Apologies: Gail Caberlon, Denise Hearn, Greg Murphy

Open: 7:10 pm
Opened a bottle of Champagne to celebrate the official school birthday for yesterday 12th may. Norm Proposed a beautiful and eloquent toast to Hanwood.

Dinner report
24 tables have been reserved so far
68 tickets have been paid to date
Greg will advertise the dinner further and revamping both TV ads
Waiting for numbers - need to let the caterers know 1 week before.
31st May will be the advertised date for closing for tickets
Allan Wallet will interview Brian tomorrow morning to also advertise the dinner.
Annette did an interview with Community FM also.
Norm suggested to ask for a commercial to be created. Annette to look into it - Chris Corbett Annette has created a brief that will be used as discussion points for radio stations to discuss and plug as they have a moment.

Area News
Came to school today to take a birthday photo and hopefully will be on the front page this week
Area News would like to also come to the Concert to do a feature
Lyn Urquhart - Brian to give her a call.

100 candles were erected tonight.
Thank you to John and Sue Delves, Caroline Den Houting, Pamela Gulloni, Elliott and Will, Wendy Collis.
Catering
P&C have meeting tomorrow night
Sausage sizzle and morning tea will be discussed. Cakes and slices for day and supper for night. Fairy floss and jumping castle has been organised.
It is expected that we will have a large crowd as it is unknown territory. A note will go into the newsletter asking for support.
Invite students who are attending on Saturday to wear their "old" clothes

Order of events
Monica ran through the formal proceedings.
Ask ex-students to be volunteer guides to take visitors to go around the school.
Memorabilia will be for sale.
Train rides 10.00 - 10.15
10.15 - 10.45 historical tour
11 am formal proceedings no train
1.30 - 2.00 historical tour
Children's tour on demand
Sound System - Mark Macedone - Hathouse Productions. To be investigated.
Direct people to visit the shop etc.

Sunday
Marge Careri has offered to open up their garden on Sunday from 10 am for morning tea. $5 entry fee and all proceeds to go to the school. Any uneaten slices etc from Saturday night will be given to Marge for her garden tea.

McWilliam's are not serving breakfast on Sunday morning during Unwined.

CWA display
Mrs Stacey is in charge of the display.
Women's Land Army will also do a display.

MI - photos
Thank you to John Delves for Belynda Henderson (name TBC) for sourcing the historic photos of Hanwood.

Griffith City Library - has the original register

Next meeting: Monday 27th May at 7 pm

Meeting closed: 8 pm.